

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KaiderLaw® Appoints Azi S. Kaider as Head of Business Development & Strategy to Drive Firm Growth

Clarksburg, MD — March 20, 2026 — KaiderLaw® today announced that Azi S. Kaider has joined the firm as Head of Business Development & Strategy. In this role, she will lead the firm’s growth initiatives across its core practice areas, including trademarks, contracts, business litigation, and craft beverage law.

Azi brings more than a decade of experience in strategic program development, stakeholder engagement, and advocacy leadership. She previously held national leadership roles with the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, where she led initiatives spanning patient access, policy strategy, and cross-sector collaboration. Her work has consistently focused on building high-impact programs, developing durable partnerships, and translating complex regulatory environments into practical, results-oriented strategies.

At KaiderLaw®, Azi will focus on expanding the firm’s client base, strengthening relationships with entrepreneurs and business leaders, and building scalable business development processes to support continued growth.

“Azi brings a powerful combination of strategic thinking, operational discipline, and relationship-building skill,” said Brian D. Kaider, Founder of KaiderLaw. “Her ability to understand client needs and translate them into actionable growth strategies will be instrumental as we continue to expand our work with businesses and brands.”

In her role, Azi will lead initiatives to deepen the firm’s presence among consumer brands, startups, and craft beverage companies, while supporting clients in protecting their trademarks, structuring agreements, and navigating business disputes.

“KaiderLaw® is uniquely positioned to support businesses at critical stages of growth,” said Azi Kaider. “I’m excited to help expand the firm’s reach, build meaningful client relationships, and contribute to a practice that combines legal insight with practical business strategy.”

About KaiderLaw®

KaiderLaw® is a Maryland-based boutique law firm focused on trademarks, contracts, business litigation, and craft beverage law. The firm represents entrepreneurs, consumer brands, and growing businesses, providing practical, business-oriented legal solutions to help clients protect their brands, structure their operations, and resolve disputes effectively.